Hillsboro Airport Roundtable Exchange Meets Oct. 6

Hillsboro Airport Roundtable Exchange plans a regular meeting Thursday, Oct. 6 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in rooms 113 B and C at City of Hillsboro Civic Center, 150 E. Main Street. The public is invited.

The meeting will be the last regular HARE meeting but community engagement will continue with the upcoming Hillsboro Master Plan Update, which is anticipated to begin February 2017.

Topics slated for the meeting include the plan for continued community engagement, next steps for the Master Plan Update and a public recognition of the HARE committee's work. A public comment period is scheduled at 6:25 p.m.

Free parking is available, and the site is accessible by the TriMet MAX Blue Line at the Hatfield Government Center Station.

Hillsboro Airport Roundtable Exchange is a 22-member advisory group to the Port of Portland, formed to enhance and facilitate communication among people interested in the airport. Committee members represent the airport's diverse stakeholders such as nearby residents, neighboring businesses, airport tenants and users, and local jurisdictions.

The full meeting agenda and more information on the committee is available at www.portofportland.com. For more information, call Jayson Shanafelt, Port community affairs outreach manager, 503.415.6853.
