Airport Relocates Cell Phone Waiting Lot

After more than 10 years in its current location, Portland International Airport relocated the cell phone waiting lot to a new space adjacent to the newly-opened PDX Travel Center.

The cell phone lot area - with capacity for more than 45 vehicles - provides a place where drivers can park for free for a maximum of 30 minutes, wait for a phone call from family or friends announcing their arrival, and then drive up to the airport terminal's curbside passenger pick-up area. It is a short 3-minute drive to the terminal from the cell phone lot.

The new cell phone lot is located adjacent to the PDX Travel Center, which contains a 7-Eleven convenience store with a gas station and car wash; Dutch Bros. Coffee and Taco Bell are slated to open in the Travel Center this fall.
