EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Bobbi Stedman addressed the Commission and audience; her comments covered the following general topics:

- Acknowledged the Port's monthly safety champions and asked Stan Watters for this month's safety message;
- We celebrated the opening of the new PDX Quick Turnaround facility, where rental cars are washed, fueled and stored;
- This month marks the 10th anniversary of the PDX-Amsterdam nonstop route. Curtis is in AMS to celebrate the occasion and to meet with Delta and KLM;
- The Port hosted the annual PDX Make the Connection banquet, which is an opportunity to celebrate our partners and volunteers at the airport who provide outstanding customer service;

10

- With 87,000 vehicle exports in 2017, the Port continues to lead the U.S. West Coast for auto exports. The combined number of imports and exports were more than 300,000 vehicles, an almost eight percent increase from 2016;
- TriMet announced the MAX Red line service to PDX has been expanded as of early March, adding hours on each side of their service. TriMet is also working on a new 24-hour bus service, which may begin as early as this Fall;
- The Port celebrated Black History month with outside guests and performers, as well as a presentation from Commissioner Alexander and a panel discussion with Port employees. Thanks to everyone for their participation and to the Port employees for sharing their personal perspectives; and
- The Port received positive feedback about the first of several training sessions on Exploring Bias and the Concepts of Inclusion. Thanks to Commissioners Cuprill-Comas and Young for participating.

Commissioner Cuprill-Comas called for a motion to approve the Executive Director's Report. Commissioner Chamberlain moved to approve the Executive Director's Report. Commissioner Alexander seconded the motion, which was put to a voice vote. Commissioners Alexander, Chamberlain, Cuprill-Comas, McDonald, Pearce, Tsuruta and Young voted in favor of the motion.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Stephan Moritz, UniteHere Local 8, addressed the Commission regarding breaking what he believes is a cycle of poverty for workers at the airport. He said there is no time to waste and urged the Commission to move swiftly to find solutions to the concessions issues. Commissioner Cuprill-Comas responded to Mr. Moritz's comments.
