PORTLAND INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT
RUNWAY SAFETY INSPECTION
(FEBRUARY 2, 2017)

This morning residents may notice a temporary change in aircraft flight activity as the Federal Aviation Administration will be performing a flight inspection of PDX navigation aids associated with the north parallel runway (runway 28R). This inspection will include multiple approaches to the runway by an FAA business jet.

The inspection is scheduled to occur from 9 AM-11 AM.

Thank you for your patience during this temporary activity.
