SUN COUNTRY AIRLINES® ANNOUNCES NEW SERVICE BETWEEN PORTLAND AND ORLANDO

Network expansion brings Sun Country's nonstop route total to 47

MINNEAPOLIS (March 1, 2018) – Sun Country Airlines today announces new seasonal nonstop service between Portland International Airport (PDX) and Orlando International Airport (MCO). The new route begins in time for the summer vacation season giving Sun Country customers the opportunity to experience all that Orlando and Portland have to offer.

In celebration of this new service, Sun Country is offering introductory fares as low as $149* one-way. Flight and hotel vacation package deals are also available through Sun Country Vacations®.

Seasonal nonstop flights between Portland and Orlando will be offered June 14 through August 19, 2018, operating three times a week on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Sundays.

Sun Country already offers convenient nonstop service to both Orlando and Portland from its hometown of Minneapolis/St. Paul.

“Both Portland and Orlando are terrific vacation destinations of ours,” said Jude Bricker, president and CEO of Sun Country Airlines. “We look forward to connecting the two and bringing our Midwest hospitality and convenient nonstop service to more passengers through this route network expansion.”

For full schedule, Sun Country Vacations® flight and hotel packages, and low fares visit suncountry.com.
